

The Dry Dock has a Code of Conduct that ensures everyone has a positive experience at the Dry Dock. This code covers how we treat each other and how we consider our neighbors and what the rules are regarding service animals. The code must be followed so that we can preserve a clean safe have for one and all in recovery. By adhering to the code recovering souls are allowed to connect with each other, heal and grow strong. To preserve the healing and growth we ask that you observe the following simple rules.

How we treat each other

- WE must avoid violence at all costs.
 - Assaulting or inappropriate touching is not tolerated at the Dry Dock
- WE cannot threaten another or engage in sexual harassment
- We cannot actively drink or use drugs on the premise
- We must respect the property of others
- We must not create disturbances
- WE must not loiter or panhandle

We have a good neighbor policy, please follow:

- If you smoke, please smoke on the corner of Fillmore and Greenwich
 - There is a school to the right of the Dock and businesses along the street on the left
 - The smoke tends to drift into these facilities and angers the proprietors
- Honor others by keep the sidewalks clean:
 - Throw cigarette butts (after putting them out) and waste in the garbage
- Maintain normal speaking voices when congregating inside and outside of the Dry Dock
- Good will is preserved when we don't double park do not block drive ways

Children:	Service Animals: Are allowed at the Dry Dock but:
➤ Children are welcome in meetings. Parents are asked to step out of the meeting if the children have to be quieted.	➤ The dog must leashed and under your control at all times.
➤ Children cannot be left alone in the Dry Dock. Counter personnel cannot assume responsibility for them.	➤ The dog must be quiet
	➤ The dog must be removed if there is a person who is allergic in the Dry Dock

Our mission is to provide a safe haven for everyone. We reserve the right to ask unruly people to leave.
